The screenshot shows the 'Yale Dermatopathology' website header with navigation links: Home, Search, Options, Logout. Below the header, a red heading reads 'Welcome to our Internet Results Inquiry'. A message asks the user to sign in by providing login and password information. There are two input fields for 'Login:' and 'Password:', followed by a 'Submit' button. Below the form, there are links for 'Instructions' and 'Click here to request an account'. At the bottom, a small disclaimer states: 'This information is highly confidential and protected under physician-patient privilege. Unauthorized use is strictly prohibited. Violators will be prosecuted.'

- Access web-based pathology reports at your convenience
- Routine results are available within 24 hours of receipt of specimen.
- Secure 128-bit SSL encryption, among the most powerful SSL encryption today.
- IRMA has been tested on MACs and PCs using Internet Explorer, Firefox, Safari and Google Chrome browsers.

Multiple search functions:

- Patient name
- Patient date of birth
- Date of submission
- Doctor (if more than one)
- Case accession number

The screenshot shows the 'Search' page of the website. It features a header with navigation links: Home, Search, Options, Logout. The main heading is 'Search' with the instruction 'Enter Patient Search Criteria:'. There are several input fields: 'Last name', 'First name', 'Accession #', and 'Date Of Birth'. Below these is a section for 'Specimen Received at Yale' with 'From' and 'To' input fields. There is also a 'Search physician(s)' input field. At the bottom of the form are 'Submit' and 'Clear Form' buttons. A disclaimer at the bottom reads: 'This information is highly confidential and protected under physician-patient privilege. Unauthorized use is strictly prohibited. Violators will be prosecuted.'
